

Position: Segment Producer (Volunteer) (4 positions)

Job Description:

GMIHub Online is a weekly online production of Gospel Music Industry Hub. We are seeking volunteer Segment Producers to assist with creating highlight videos from our existing episode footage. The highlight videos will be used for: marketing on our social media platforms; providing elite footage for GMIHub members; and re-webcasting episodes on the GMIHub Online YouTube channel.

Outline of Responsibilities:

- Review and timecode all existing episodes
- Combine segments of similar aspects of a topic (e.g. tips to overcome writer's block) into one-minute, and maximum 15-minute produced segments/shows
- Other video editing as required (i.e. for upcoming programs)

Ideal Qualifications:

- Enrolled in a television broadcasting, video or multimedia, advertising production program
- Familiarity with an editing software, preferably DaVinci Resolve
- Interest in the music industry/ministry preferred
- Access to own computer
- Must be a team player, creative, and very good with time management

To Apply: Please forward a letter of interest and resume to volunteer@gmihub.ca

Suggested number of hours: 4 - 6 hours per week

About Gospel Music Industry Hub

Gospel Music Industry Hub (GMIHub) is a member-based network, a facilitator, and an information-sharing resource – a place where participants within the gospel music industry can connect to partner and invest in one another to become better and more effective in what we are called to do. Through programs such as the weekly online panel discussion webcasts of GMIHub Online, the mentoring program, and Christmas compilation program, GMIHub aims to encourage unity, community, mentorship and talent growth within the gospel/Christian music scene.
