On a silent holy night
In a cattle shed, no light
A baby is born
The scene; unremarkable
Tiny visitor to town
The calm before the storm
Before the storm

*The King of Heaven
Has come down
To turn this world around*

No word of the time or day
Just a promise from the ancient way
Forgotten or ignored
Still, there were those who knew
The promise destined to come true
They waited for their Lord
For their Lord

*The King of Heaven
Has come down
To turn this world around*

*Bringing love
Bringing joy
A hope for peace once more*

Now it's Christmas once again
I look for you, I call your name
You said "seek and you will find"
Another promise to return
I watch and wait, the candle burns
Who knows, maybe it's time
Maybe it's time

A plan so amazing
Angel choirs singing
I find myself wondering out loud
At this living promise
Come down through the clouds

*The King of Heaven
Has come down
To turn my world around*

*The King of Heaven
Has come down
To turn my world around
Turn it upside down*
